

Ohio Travel Treasures

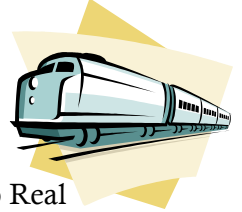

in conjunction with Cruise Quarters & Tours is proud to announce:

The 2009 program by Train & Dutch Ocean Liner to Mexico's stunning Copper Canyon— "A Train Holiday to the Copper Canyon"

A stunning journey to Mexico's storied Copper Canyon via the Chihuahua al Pacifico Railroad and Holland America Line

Only two dates available for this "Uncommon Journey"—
Departure on March 23 & October 17, 2009 (15-day program)

This unique holiday features:

- One night PRE trip in El Paso, Texas at the finest hotel in town, the elegant Camino Real
- Four nights IN the Copper Canyon with extraordinary sightseeing, fine hotels, and a relaxed pace.
 - Two nights beachfront luxury hotel stay in Mazatlan, Mexico
- A rare six night voyage from Mazatlan to San Diego aboard the splendid ms Ryndam of Holland America Line.

This carefully crafted tour not only features the epic journey over the entire Chihuahua al Pacifico Railway, through 86 tunnels and across 37 bridges but, is the ONLY Copper Canyon program that avoids flying in and out of Mexican airports and endless days of bus travel.

You will enjoy short, scenic day trips by train through the entire canyon with plenty of time IN the Copper Canyon.

Day 1: Guests begin their holiday in El Paso and naturally, transfers from the airport and train station are included as is a welcome dinner the first evening of our tour.

Day 2-3: The following day, you will head south for Chihuahua—the starting point for the Chihuahua al Pacifico Railway, an epic engineering feat that took over 100 years to complete. As the Copper Canyon is four times the size of the Grand Canyon, we have broken our passage through this scenic wonder of the world into segments so none of our rides on the train are long, interspersed with stays at the finest hotels in the Canyon, Creel and Divisadero.

Day 4-5: Enjoy two nights at the breathtakingly beautiful Divisadero and each day, complete and extensive sightseeing is included, at no extra charge, as are all meals in carefully chosen restaurants. Plus, a professional American tour manager travels with you from start to finish.

Day 6-8: After four full days in the Copper Canyon, travel west via the train to the picturesque colonial town of El Fuerte for an overnight stay before driving south to Mazatlan for a two-night stay at an Oceanfront resort, Costa de Oro.

Day 9-15: Journey from Mazatlan to San Diego aboard the acclaimed ms Ryndam of Holland America, a six-night voyage on the shining Sea of Cortez, with stops in Topolosalpampa, Loreto, Las Paz and Cabo San Lucas and with a final day at sea sailing along the coast of Baja, California before you arrive in San Diego for your flight home.

Aboard ship, there are special parties and events as we sail to California. No other tour to the Copper Canyon offers as much in terms of time in the Canyon, comprehensive sightseeing, intelligent scheduling and clever timing. Ending this epic journey by ship is perhaps the crowning touch of this holiday.

Pricing Starts at only:

$2,995.00 for the March departure and
$3,295.00 for the October departure

(per person, double occupancy—includes: Complete fares for the 15-day program; hotel stay in El Paso, all train travel in Mexico (in the best available First Class carriages), all hotel stays in Mexico, sightseeing, most meals, Holland America cruise and much more)

Space is limited each date—ONLY 130 seats on the train!

- Passengers making a $250.00 deposit by June 1, 2008 will enjoy FREE train travel to El Paso from any US city.
- Otherwise, guests may fly from over 189 gateway cities for only $99.00 per person—a great value!!!

This is an ideal program for guests that have always wanted to visit the Copper Canyon but have postponed it until a civilized method for doing it arrived.
