

Guys & Dolls
Gangster Gala
 NEWPORT SYNDICATE

June 23, 2010 (Wednesday)

Hey, Guys and Dolls! How would you like to re-create history with the sounds of the 1920s, 30s and 40s?

Join Tom Daugherty and his 17-piece big band orchestra along with vocalists in celebrating the music of a bygone era.

Back in the days of the speakeasies, bootleg liquor and gangsters, the fun was "secret" yet ever-flowin'.

You can bet your bottom dollar you'll be swingin' to the songs made famous by Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Marilyn Monroe and many others.

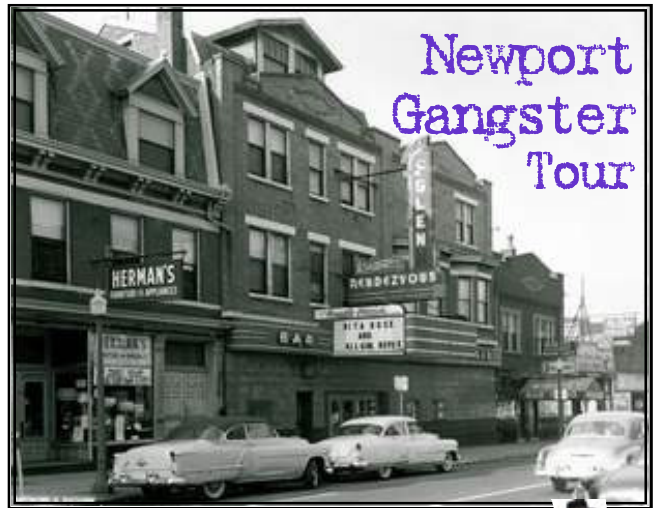

In their heyday, they would do favorites such as "Come Fly With Me", "New York, New York", "Goody, Goody", "I Wanna Be Loved By You", "Diamonds Are A Girl's Best Friend", "Ain't That A Kick In The Head", "The Lady Is A Tramp", "Luck Be A Lady", "Mack The Knife", "You Turned The Tables On Me", "When You're Smiling", "5'2' Eyes Of Blue", "Hello My Honey", "Baby Face", "Happy Days Are Here Again" and "The Charleston" - not to mention the ever-popular "Sing, Sing, Sing".

So, get your passwords and secret knocks ready and we'll "blow the roof off the joint" with lots of "whoopin' and howlin'!"

Before there was Las Vegas... there was Newport, Kentucky.

Rising from the profits of bootlegging, Newport would quickly grow to become the premier gaming destination in the US.

Walk the streets where gangsters made their millions, gamblers lost their lives, and ladies of the night earned their living. See the buildings that housed casinos, brothels, and speakeasies.

Explore Newport's connection to some of the most well known crime figures in our country's history, and discover the individuals who gave the town its infamous reputation.
