

Musical Memories & More!

Tour
can be one to three nights.

November 10th and 11th 2010 are dates to REMEMBER for:

A Branson style tradition of giving audiences an entertainment experience that is fresh and exciting.

Three different shows that also includes
A Ballroom Dance
A Salute to Veterans and Glen Miller and A Sock Hop!

PLUS there will be entertainment at each location
Highlights of this exciting musical adventure:

Orchestra and Ballroom Dance with the Tom Daughtery Orchestra -Nationally Touring show and dance orchestra featuring an exciting and entertaining 'Las Vegas' show style. The group performs a wide variety of music ranging from the original 'Big Band' arrangements of the Swing Era to Tommy Dorsey, Duke Ellington, Artie Shaw...Swing, Waltz, Rumba, Cha Cha, Foxtrot and more. Dinner, Dance Lessons—prior to dinner and Dancing! (dance partners will be available) included at the historic Manchester Ballroom.

Evening of November 10, 2010 The Glenn Miller Army Air Force Band Tribute in full authentic WWII Uniforms

Enlisting in the Army Air Corps during WWII, Glenn Miller formed one the greatest military bands of all times.

Major Glenn Miller paid the ultimate sacrifice when he was lost over the English Channel in a plane traveling to France to prepare for performances.

Musical Selections

Include: "Moonlight Serenade", "In The Mood", "A String Of Pearls" "St. Louis Blues March", "Jeep Jockey Jump" "Long Ago And Far Away", "Tail End Charlie", "Peggy The Pin-up Girl", "American Patrol" "Chattanooga Choo Choo", "Here We Go Again" "The Army Air Corps Song", and many more!

Special performance by The Swingin' Sweethearts
as The Andrew Sisters

Luncheon performance at

The Syndicate in Newport

November 11, 2010

The World Peace Bell

(a special tribute on Nov. 11, 2010)

A TRIBUTE To VETERANS.... hear the
World's Largest Bell toll 5 times (once for each branch of the military)
join in as guests raise their flags as the COLOR GUARD renders honors when the national anthem is sung.

There will be a grand finale.

One, Two, Three O'Clock ROCK - a Salute to the 50s & 60s Musical Revue.

Remember those glory days of rock and roll when you'd go out on a date with your car radio blasting the latest doo-wop sounds from New Jersey, surf music from California, or the cool tunes from the NYC Brill Building?

Live Band - complete with dinner, hula hoops, and prizes for the best dressed, the best socks and the best jitter bug dancers!!
Dinner, Banana Splits and Live Show
Nov. 11, 2010

Enjoy a PRIVATE morning at the new EnterTRAINment Junction.. complete with Entertainment!

From the music of the train era to the history of train travel. Experience all the sights, sounds and over 100 miles of track!! Can you hear the whistle blow??

Enjoyment, entertainment all at EnterTRAINment! Nov. 11, 2010

Voice of America—The first and only station constructed that was powerful enough to broadcast to virtually the entire world. Hitler referred to the VOA as “those Cincinnati Liars”.

Additional touring options:

Earth Orchestra Studios

- guests will receive a fascinating tour of the PRIVATE studio of renowned sculptor Ed Casagrande.

From behind the scenes, guests will tour the “working” studio and watch the process of metal sculpture creation.

Then browse the pieces for sale in the showroom located on site.

Creation Museum -

The state-of-the-art 70,000 sq.ft.museum brings the pages of the Bible to life. Adam and Eve live in the Garden of Eden. Children play and dinosaurs roam near Eden's Rivers. Majestic murals and great masterpieces.

“Signs of the Times”

American Sign Museum.

This museum, the 1st in the NATION is devoted exclusively to signs. Showing off more than 120—storefronts decked out with dozens of signs on porches, roofs, railings and windows.

Everything from a 1932 oval Ford sign to an old neon DeSota sign.

American Sign Museum guests will be entertained by Gigi formerly with the Charmaines!!!

The Museum Center at Union Terminal

Built as Cincinnati's main train station in the early 1930s, this art deco, giant half dome structure-the largest in the world, also offers the largest tile mosaics in the United States.

Guests will tour “Cincinnati Goes to War: A Community Responds”.

This exhibit focuses on wartime experiences through 3-D interactive vignettes, placed in the very spot where GIs would have boarded the trains that would take them to war.

For more information:

OHIO TRAVEL TREASURES, LLC.

5270 Day Road Cincinnati, OH 45252

(513) 923-9112 or (800) 582-5997

ohiotraveltreasures@fuse.net

Member of NTA, ABA, OTA
Bank Travel Management