

Ohio Travel Treasures presents

Brews, Brooms & Tunes

For a Haunting Good Time!

Waynesville, Ohio October 20-23, 2010

Day trip or up to three nights

Begin your tour in Waynesville, Ohio – noted as one of the most haunted villages in the United States and definitely in OHIO

Lunch at Der Dutchman

in Waynesville -Guests will dine family style enjoying chicken and roast beef, real mashed potatoes and gravy, noodles salad, hot vegetable, fresh baked bread and scrumptious pumpkin pie for dessert.

CABARET SHOW PERFORMANCE -
October 20, 2010 ONLY -

"WITCHES BREW"

at Der Dutchman in Waynesville

This show is loaded with over 20 show tunes, standard and original works...

BE AWARE the audience is not out of reach of the Witch of Halloween!!

*Set in the land of midnight shadows and starry skies comes the story of the Witch of Halloween.

The Witch, determined to complete her brew would turn all days Halloween, decides to summon 3 lost souls to aide in her sorcery.

Can she claim her destiny with the elite of the sisterhood, or will the good in all beings prevail over the darkness of evil??

FUN AND EXCITEMENT FOR ALL!

Lunch and show only $46.00

Add on's

Historic Walking Ghost Tours.

Your guide culls the most fascinating and true stories of area lore to delight visitors of all ages to "The Most Haunted Village in Ohio", as it is called by Haunted Ohio series author Chris Woodyard.

The one-hour stroll highlights historically based legends from the area's unique past. Nearly all stories are first- or second-hand accounts of personally experienced events that defy explanation, with the occasional local legend thrown in. History buffs will enjoy the tales surrounding this 200+-year-old village.

An Orchard Visit, with a Tour, Pumpkins and Hayrides...What fun!!

Your group will learn about the apple growing process. There is also a hayride to the pumpkin patch to pick your own pumpkin. The tour concludes with apple cider and donut for all. Finish up with a visit with their friendly farm animals.

Tour of the General Harding Home.

The library has an extensive collection of military history and a wonderful collection of oriental swords. To this day guests and docents have experienced General Harding standing at full attention at the top of the stairs....will he make his presence known???

Visit the Shaker museum in Lebanon where guests will journey back in time....there are many unusual (some considered a little creepy) items on display. Hear the story about how the Shakers "disappeared".

"Ghosts and Goblets DINNER" at the historic Hammel House.

Built in 1822, this historic inn was used on the stage coach line for travelers. Guests will dine on Beef, Fall roasted vegetables, mashed potatoes, pumpkin bread pudding and other FALL FAVORITES. ...watch out for ghostly happenings during dinner

Guided tour of Music Hall

Experience Bones and Shivers...Any huge hall can be creepy, but Music Hall carries bag and baggage all it's own.

Built in 1876 on a paupers field, workers unearthed masses of skeletons and caskets. These unrested spirits still haunt Music Hall. Guests will learn so much about this great hall that is home to the Cincinnati Symphony.

Wine Taste Testing at Meier's Winery. Enjoy tasting three different wines (cheese and crackers included) & time to make purchases in the gift shop.

Guided tour of Spring Grove Cemetery and Arboretum

one of the largest cemeteries in the United States where legends abound but one of the strangest is that of a statue with human eyes (Want to see for yourself?)

Spring Grove Cemetery is the final resting place of many famous individuals. There are approximately 34 Civil War Generals, ten governors (from three states), and gothic castles and headstones. Absolutely gorgeous...it also serves as an arboretum and park. VERY INTERESTING.

Tour the Golden Lamb- founded in 1803, Several famous, people have stayed at the Golden Lamb, including Charles Dickens, Mark Twain, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Daniel Webster, and Lord Stanly, who became one of England's Prime Ministers.

Learn about the most famous ghost named Sarah. Her ghostly activity occurs mainly in one specific room. She makes lots of noises and knocks things off walls and furniture.

Meal can be included.

If you would like more information please contact

Ohio Travel Treasures

(513) 923-9112 or (800) 582-5997

ohiotraveltreasures@fuse.net

Fax: (513) 923-3108